

Club. Those, if any, who have doubts as to the virility or success of the S.O.S. should have attended the supper immediately following the Annual General Meeting held in May. Old boys ranged from the '25 Club to the '36 Club; Messrs. Acres, Moore and Carter represented the present students; and Messrs. Rowan, Meades and Evans of the College Staff completed the triumvirate of forces. And, mark you, a 'bus strike was in progress.

May I take this opportunity of again emphasising that the S.O.S. is open to all, and just as keen to have honorary as well as playing members. With this aim in view we have begun a Badminton Club which meets every Wednesday at the College. All are welcome and remember that this will function all the year round. C. Meades, Esq., B.Sc., has offered to give his advice and any coaching that is convenient. Don't write but just turn up any time after 5 o'clock. We shall be pleased to see you.

For those who are purely rigger minded the results for the season are; fourteen won, nine lost, and one drawn. This is on the whole healthy and satisfactory.

At the Annual General Meeting many changes of office took place. All Shoreditch men will be pleased to know that A. G. Scrivens, Esq., M.A., B.Sc., was unanimously elected as a vice-president while the College Principal, T. Reed, Esq., M.B.E. was again elected as president. Votes of thanks were given. Particularly sincere were those given to A. Rowan, Esq., for his kindness in taking the chair at the meeting. Also the vote of thanks to G. T. Evans, Esq., for his unflinching enthusiasm and great work for the Club behind the scenes was loudly acclaimed. Mr. Evans heartened everyone present when he announced that the long-needed improvements to the dressing accommodation were no longer ideas in the clouds but now real facts with the L.C.C.

A combined College and S.O.S. dance is well on the way to take place just before Christmas.

Finally, I would ask all S.O.S. men to support the Complimentary Function to A. Carr, Esq., at the "Silver Grill," Drury Lane, on the last Saturday in June. And also to watch these columns and those of the various Teachers' Journals for a similar announcement in connection with A. Rowan, Esq. Any further details can be had by writing to me at 14, Chapel Street, Bedford Row, W.C.1., or telephone Chancery 7519. All the first stock of Club Ties was early sold out but further supplies are to hand. The price is 2s. 9d.

S. G. DAVIES (Hon. Sec.)
